

VIJAYFEST 2015

Vijayfest is the annual celebration of Vijayapuram Social Service Society. It is the festive occasion for all the organizations under the umbrella of the Society. Children, youth, men and women and all the people in the target area get involved in the day long celebrations. It marks the year end of social actions for 365 days and prepares the organization to make leap towards New Year in the horizon.

Elaborate arrangements and committees with able personals have been constituted for the proper conduction of the event. Some catchy items are included as on the spot competitions for lively participation of the people. Coconut peeling with axe, craft works with locally available materials, broom making, basket weaving, vegetable printing, group painting etc. add flamboyant and picturesque to crowd pulling event. Photo exhibition of the houses constructed under the housing scheme would be a matter of pride for grass root level leaders to the central staff for their great toil to materialize the dreams of 125 families to have secure shelters for them to reside. To further the cause of housing program, a lucky dip has been planned to be conducted on the same day.

The day set for the mega event is 2nd January, 2016. The public meeting which ensues in the after noon of that day will be attended by Bishop of Diocese of Vijayapuram, giant figures in political and social fields. Meritorious victors of competitions held earlier will also be honored in the public meeting.
